DOT

Dot draws inspiration from contemporary wallcoverings with minimal design and subtle color palettes. The pattern of this sleek aesthetic is reminiscent of a dot grid; subtle in some colorways and bolder in others. The collection features unique trims and mosaics allowing you to create interesting visual moments in your design.

NIMBUS

Nimbus draws inspiration from a style of Japanese concrete tiles called Yousai. The glazing process for this tile is organic; the glossy finish pools irregularly over the undulating surface of the concrete-like tile, leaving areas of the rough body exposed. The organic flow of the glaze creates a playful movement of light across its surface. Play with the orientation of this tile and experiment with colorful grouts, and you will be surprised how Nimbus will transform your design.

GEO CEMENTO

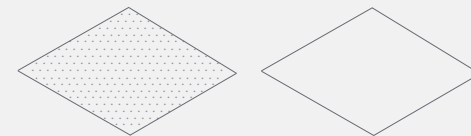

GEO CEMENTO

Geo Cemento captures the process of early ceramic studios, which used metal oxides (glazes) to create decorative elements and experiment with color on cementine tiles. Geo Cemento illustrates this traditional process with new geometric shapes, classic decorative designs and unique glazes. The glazes created for this collection create depth and drama when mixed to together or used alone. The matte finish has a soft, chalky appearance, while the glossy has the visual of water flowing over a surface and the irregular edge created when it dries and recedes. Geo Cemento's appreciation of traditional methods brings a refreshing and unique aesthetic to contemporary designs.

COTTO + WOOD

COTTO + WOOD

Cotto + Wood is a collection featuring two traditional materials with their defining characteristics transformed into porcelain. While many natural materials can lose their defining characteristics, this collection focuses on enhancing the plain sawn grain of wood and the aged, weathered appearance of cotto, by using a uniform color palette and varying finishes. The palette is composed of deep, natural tones, differing ever so slightly between the wood and cotto textures, yet still working together wonderfully. The wood has a chalky matte finish, while that same finish for cotto has touches of a satin sheen to reflect light and add moments of brightness. Create a textural study of materials in your next design using Cotto + Wood.

PIETRA SERENA

PIETRA SERENA

Pietra Serena is a fine-grained sandstone in a blue gray colorway quarried outside of Florence, Italy. The stone covers the sidewalks of Florence and is where Steve Jobs saw the uniformly grained and colored stone, which was later incorporated into the Apple Store's minimalist interiors. This porcelain version of Pietra Serena replicates the sandstone's fine-grained aesthetic and colorway. The color palette is a gradient of cool and warm colors, each one becoming more saturated, making it a perfect collection of neutral colors for any interior.

COLTINA

COLTINA

Most Basaltine collections are one dimensional – leaving you hard-pressed to find any pop of color. Coltina redefines this, examining how colors and patterns respond to the grey base of the stone. Depending on which color pattern is chosen, a different effect is achieved! The brightness of the pink pops on the grey body, while the softness of purple fades away on the grey. With 12 pattern options to choose from in 7 colors, Coltina is ready redefine your next project!
