

COLORFORM

Playful. Chromatic. Captivating.

Colorform ceramic wall tile emerges as a dynamic, adaptable, and visually captivating series, granting extensive creative liberty through whimsical chromatic interplays, stark divergences, and subtle gradations. The collection boasts a broad spectrum, enabling bold contrasts and gentle pairings that invigorate any commercial setting.

"Colour is never absolute, it is always relative, and it is what you put next to it that defines it."

-Tekla Evelina Severin

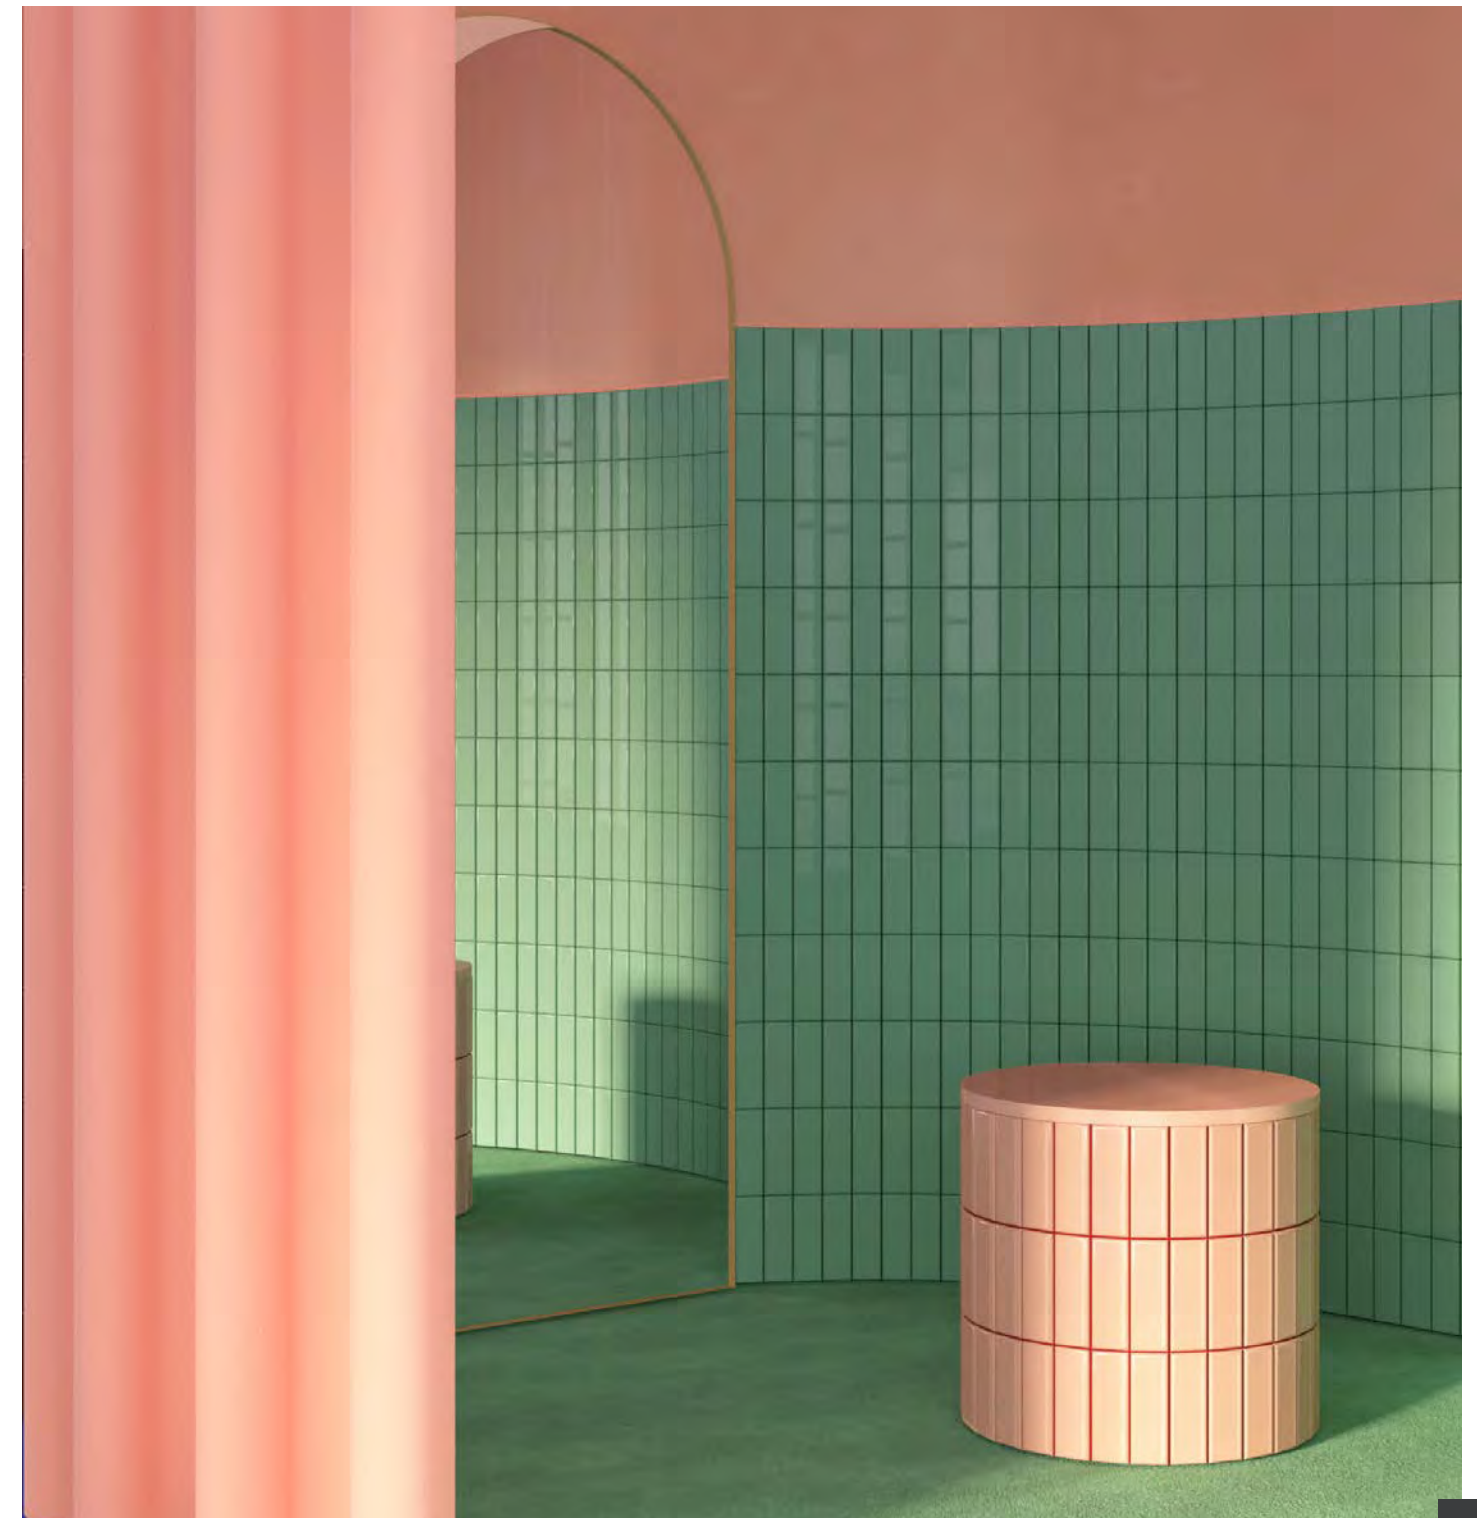

Colorform emerged out of a passion for crafting a dynamic, adaptable, and visually striking series that allows for unrestrained artistic expression through whimsical chromatic interactions, stark divergences, and subtle gradations.

The motivation for the hues selection originates from an eclectic array of inspirations: visuals captured on global journeys; heritage sites shrouded in the gentle reminiscence of past eras; and the ever-shifting play of light on nature's canvases that alters perceptions of shade throughout the day.

Tekla Evelina Severin

Founded her multidisciplinary studio in 2015. She graduated in 2010 from the Interior Architecture and Furniture Design program at Konstfack University of Arts and Crafts in Stockholm, and began her career as an interior architect with a focus on large public spaces and high-end residential projects. Deeply influenced by a love of colour, shape and composition, she also worked in photography and set design.
